Archbishop Gomez, Catholic Schools to Honor the Service of Seven Leaders

What: Archbishop José H. Gomez will join with Catholic school supporters, teachers, staff and administrators to honor and celebrate the service of seven leaders, who are champions for Catholic school education. The leaders will be honored with an award dinner on Friday, April 30, 2010, at 6:30 pm at the Omni San Antonio Hotel at the Colonnade. The evening will include a video presentation highlighting their service, and a Hope for the Future check award for the school project of their choice.

Who: Hall of Fame Honoree, Dr. Paul S. Saenz, Central Catholic High School team doctor. Dr. Saenz also is the team doctor for the San Antonio Spurs.

The Outstanding Leaders include, Michael Fierro, Blessed Sacrament Catholic School Principal; Otto and Elsa Marie Garza, Providence Catholic School and Central Catholic High School volunteers; Rita Martinez, Rolling Hills Academy Dean of Students/ Spiritual and Academic Coordinator; Father Francis McHugh, Pastor St. Pius X Catholic Church and School; Sister Luz Moreno, St. Anthony Catholic High School Religion Teacher; and Craig Zgabay, John Paul II Catholic High School and Saints Peter and Paul Catholic school volunteer and school council member.

When: Friday, April 30th @ 6:30 p.m.

Where: Omni San Antonio Hotel at the Colonnade

All proceeds from the event will benefit Hope for the Future, the department of the Archdiocese of San Antonio responsible for raising funds to provide tuition assistance to all financially deserving children who wish to attend one of the 45 Archdiocese of San Antonio Catholic Schools.
