MOTHER OF HOPE HOSTS MAMAS & MISTLETOE EVENT IN SUPPORT OF CATHOLIC EDUCATION

WHO: Mother of Hope in support of Hope for the Future's mission to provide need-based financial assistance to Catholic schools and students in Archdiocese of San Antonio.

Catholic school alumni and supporters of Catholic education: Interviews available with key figures of the Hope for the Future organization as well as important event chairs of the highly anticipated Khaki & Plaid soirée on January 28, 2012.

WHAT: The season of giving is upon us and to kick it off, Mothers of Hope and the Salado Creek Boutique will host Mamas & Mistletoe – a shopping benefit in support of Catholic school education.

Mothers of Hope are a group of dedicated mothers with the common goal of building up Catholic school education through prayer, service projects and tuition assistance.

Salado Creek Boutique is located in the lush oak covered grounds of Los Patios. It offers beautiful treats for Texans from apparel to jewelry, home goods, leather goods and things for the little ones. 15% of all sales from the evening's benefit will go to Hope for the Future.

WHEN: Thursday, November 3, 2011 5 p.m. – 8 p.m.

WHERE: Salado Creek Boutique At Los Patios
2015 Northeast Loop 410

VISUALS: A first glimpse of seasonal cheer with merrymakers and merry music including a children's choir and Santa!
